

What is an OPSister?

- A female who works in science, technology, engineering, or mathematics
- A female in a male-dominated industry such as manufacturing or construction
- Anyone (male or female) that supports a female in either of the above is someone who <3's an OPSister!

Share a picture and tell us what you do as an OPSister...or how you support one...and we will enter you into a drawing for a piece of OPSister swag!

Drawings are to be conducted at the end of every month this year! Start sharing for February 2024!
